

THE LONDONDERRY SIFTER-EXTRA.

FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 7, 1887.

THE LONDONDERRY SIFTER.
FRIDAY EVE'G, JAN. 7, 1887.

SIFTER JOHN, EDITOR.

WHY ARE WE IN THIS SHAPE?

A Dastardly Attempt to Suppress the Sifter.

WE APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE.

Yesterday this paper was issued full and complete, from the press of D. Leonard, Brattleboro, but upon its arrival at Londonderry it was taken on execution by Deputy Sheriff Melendy. This was a character—and we believe the people will coincide with us—as a dastardly attempt to suppress the Sifter. The papers taken must be advertised fourteen days, and sold to the highest bidder; and every one knows they will not realize the cost of taking, thus showing, conclusively, if anything further was needed, that the whole object of this raid, from beginning to end, is to wipe out of existence the LONDONDERRY SIFTER, by Martin and his gang, to whom it has been very offensive on account of its exposing the goings in and out of these gentry, and laying their acts and deeds bare before the people. Now shall this attempt at the suppression of this paper succeed? We do not believe it will. We stand ready to do everything in our power to prevent it, and we appeal to the people to sustain it. We appeal to every one who believes in free speech and an untrammelled press, to aid us. We appeal to all who believe in clean politics and honest political methods to give us a helping hand—give us your subscriptions and the paper shall go. We shall very soon have the use of a new press and type in Londonderry, but we need every dollar we can get to meet the extra expense we have been put to in this insane attempt to squelch us. Shall we have it? We appeal to the common people, for whom we have labored, for this aid, confident that the appeal will not be in vain. We shall see!

Let all be Distinctly Understood.

The truth should hurt no one. The office of the SIFTER has been cleared of type, presses, &c., upon an execution purporting to be in favor of one William S. Styles, of Brattleboro. We stated last week that we should show conclusively, this week, that this suit and attachments were made solely for the purpose of suppressing this paper. This is perfectly transparent to everybody up this way, and will be to all of our readers, after perusing the following plain statement of facts, that we are able to prove and verify:

In March, 1884, we purchased a second-hand Fair Haven printing press, which since that time we have used and abused—abused is the correct word—for, not being a practical printer, we knew nothing about a press, and through this ignorance came the abuse. It has broken pieces in it, "chewed up" gears, loose bearings, &c., &c. Now these parties, in order to sell this press, paid a mortgage on it of $314.05. When it was sold a friend of the SIFTER bid $225,—all that it was worth. It was struck off to Mr. Hitt, for the parties in interest, for $250. Now will any sane man—will any printer—say that there is one cent there to apply on debt, to say nothing about cost.

The type—which they have now taken—is mortgaged for its original cost with three years' interest, and during these three years, or nearly so, we have put it to every-day use. It is not to-day, or the larger portion of it, worth one-half its original cost. Any printer will certify to this statement. How much, then, is to be had out of this to apply on debt or costs? It is the opinion of well-informed men that if they get out of it with a loss of $200 that they will do well.

Now is this the way men collect debts? Is this the way prominent law firms collect debts for their clients? If so, Heaven pity the poor clients. No! And not one dollar of this loss will be sustained by Styles; not one dollar has he or will be put into it, in the way of paying off mortgages, &c. It is common rumor here, and we have no doubt that it is true, that Low Martin bought the claim of Styles, and is using it, without regard to cost, in the puerile attempt to crush the SIFTER, which his friends say he don't care anything about. Bah!

Now a word only—as we have not the space to go into lengthy explanations—as to this alleged debt, about which the Reformer—these fellows organ—has had a good deal to say, in its usual mean, sneaking, lying way. Some 14 or 15 years ago this Styles obtained a judgment against the editor of this paper for, if we remember aright, $260. It has been sued once before this, for the purpose of keeping it alive. The case originally went to the Supreme Court on a motion for a close jail execution, which the County Court denied. The Supreme Court sustained the lower Court. The case will be found in the Reports, No. 46. This judgment we have ever claimed to be unjust, and the same opinion is held by the most substantial citizens of Brattleboro and vicinity, who were acquainted with all the circumstances of the case. We have never calculated to, nor do we now intend to pay one dollar of it. If Low Martin can get it out of old type, by paying for it more than the price of new, all right. Step by step as this case has progressed has it become more and more apparent that its sole object was to squelch this sheet. So apparent is this, that, as we have heretofore said, everybody here knows this to be the case, and even friends of Martin are disgusted. Last Saturday an attempt was made to hire the office we are occupying, and failing in this, they have actually bought it this week. Jimmie, but we've got to git! But every week the SIFTER will appear, however. It is understood that they are going to start another paper, "The Pitchfork," subscription, "Collect at that end." Notice has been served upon the friends of the SIFTER that they must behave or be impealed. Then shall the SIFTER be suppressed in this way? The answer is with the people; if they want it, they will, undoubtedly, make that want known, and it will continue to be published, marked by the same independence that we have heretofore characterized it. What do you say?

If certain parties don't find it ticklish business monkeying with a printing office, why, just let your Uncle John know it, won't you? That's all.

The SIFTER is boarding out for a few weeks, but we are pleased to state that arrangements are being perfected to bring the "Old Gal" home very soon, in a spanking new dress, with the wrinkles all ironed out on a new press, and as bright, new and saucy as ever. Subscription price only one dollar.

Yours truly,

SIFTER JOHN.

They Won't Give it Up.

Brother Kopes of the Rural Vermonter still hopes that the Judges of our Courts will decline longer to accept passes from our railroads. Well, well! We suppose his hopes are founded on the tried old proverb, "That while the lamp holds out to burn the vilest sinner may return." But if we are not mistaken, it will cost a deal of money to keep the lamp supplied with oil, if it is to burn until a Vermont Judge voluntarily gives up his little free pass. They are not built that way.

Very true, these same railroads that dole out these favors to our Judges are constant litigants in Courts presided over by them; and it is true, also, that clear-headed, honest-thinking men are getting to look upon it much in the same light as they would if these Judges were to accept from a farmer litigant a tub of gilt-edged butter, or a season's supply of fire-wood. And it is true that this class of men are getting to look upon all such transactions as derogatory to a true and manly dignity that should go hand in hand with the Supreme Court Judgeship, and accordingly are losing their respect for these high judicial officers. But they won't give up the little pasteboards. No. Not until the crack of doom, and then they would out with their passes, hoping that before St. Peter could recover from his astonishment that they might slip through the "pearly gates."

Oh, the seductive free pass! It is no matter whether held by a Supreme Court Judge, a State official, a pettifoggery lawyer, a politician caucus-packer, or the hang-on, it sticks closer to a brother; and these fellows will no more release their grip upon it, than death will relinquish his right to the poor sick darkey. So, Brother Vermonter, while we admire your innocent faith, we would impress upon you the solemn fact that nothing but the heavy hand of the people, laid on in the form of a well digested law, will reach these fellows. Let us, then, labor to that end, remembering the Apostolic injunction, that "faith without works is dead."

Local Summary.

The subscription price of the SIFTER, as heretofore, is only one dollar, collect at this end.

Trustee-himself—Low Martin was in town Sunday and Monday.

The cold wave struck us to the tune of 22° below zero.

If ex-speaker Martin subscribes for the "Pitchfork," we hope, for the benefit of that sheet, that he will not wait two years and three months before he pays for it, and then after trying to trustee himself.

Hip! v' hop! Dance at the rink to-morrow evening.

HO, YE POETS!

We will give a year's subscription to the SIFTER, to be sent to any address, to the person who will send us, on or before Jan. 25, the best poem, not to exceed twelve stanzas of four lines, describing the removal of the type and presses from our office on the 29th of last month. Literary merit will not be considered, but the piece that best "hits the nail on the head," will be accepted. Any one wanting information not obtainable in this and last week's issue, will receive the same by writing us.

Our jolly stage driver, Herb Howe, has sold his route from this place to Chester to Ora Rhodes of Windham. Mr. Howe has been a very popular stage proprietor and we regret to lose him from that position. Mr. Rhodes is a young man and will no doubt please his patrons and the public.

Harry Viall, son of Philieus Viall, was quite badly bitten in the face by a dog, a few days since.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is recommended by eminent physicians, on both sides of the Atlantic, as the most reliable remedy for colds, coughs and all pulmonary disorders. Inquire of your druggist for Ayer's Almanac.

Lost.—Between Chester and So. Londonderry, last Tuesday, a nickel case, stem winding watch, with chain attached. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the same with H. R. Clough, So. Londonderry.

The long delayed windows for the M. E. church have arrived, and that edifice will soon be ready for its dedication. The improvements made are very marked and pleasing, and we congratulate the society upon their completion.

Health is impossible when the blood is impure, thick, and sluggish or when it is impoverished. Such conditions give rise to boils, pimples, headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, and other disorders. Ayer's Sarsaparilla purifies, invigorates and vitalizes the blood.

Mr. Hartwell and his gang of men make the old mill ring, and are turning out the plane woods in large quantities.

Geo. T. Abbott has sold his old building, occupied by the SIFTER, so from and after Monday our headquarters will be in the small building nearly opposite Smith's store.—Subscription for the SIFTER only one dollar a year.

Information received last night from Ludlow is to the effect that Miss Walker's better, and is out of her apartment.

LONDONDERRY.

Another cold wave.

Miss Idelle Dodge, of Boston, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dodge.

Miss Minnie Tarbell has returned to New Hampshire, to work.

Alvin Davis is very sick with that painful disease, neuralgia.

The friends of Mrs. Catherine Woods will be glad to know that she is expected home before long. She was to start from Cape Cod Tuesday, Dec. 28, would visit friends at Fitchburg, Mass., and then return to her home at this place, where she is sure to meet with a warm welcome.

The last entertainment by the Ladies' Public Aid Society is set down for Jan. 19th. All are invited to attend, and are expected to bring refreshments for the tables, which will be served free. This will be considered as an invitation sufficient to include all without further notice. The society will make ample arrangements for a good entertainment.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.

A party numbering about the good people of Weston, dr to this place Wednesday even 29, on a visit to the parsonage, Rev. and Mrs. D. H. Strong; evening was very cold, but it was full and merry within the coz. We understand that the visit very pleasant one, and greatly by all. The guests, on departure, presented a handsome gift to the hostess. We can truly say t merry, musical tinkle of the l cold frosty air, as they their way homeward, was pleasing to hear.

The scholars at this place were each and all kindly remembered by their teacher, Mr. Tarbell, with a pretty Christmas card. The lads and lassies returned the compliment in a pleasing manner; they presented a nice volume of poems to their teacher as a New Year's gift. Truly a pleasant interchange of friendly feeling, which we are glad to note.

Those in want of photographs will be glad to know that L. S. Dean, photographic artist, of Townshend, has taken rooms at this place for a short time. It is said that he understands his business and does his work nicely. Those who wish for anything in his line should attend to it immediately, as it is uncertain how long he remains here.

The dramatic entertainment, Christmas eve, was well attended and passed off finely. The play, East Lyna, gave excellent satisfaction, the parts were well committed and everything was pleasant as possible. The farce was also good in its way, and gave everyone the opportunity of enjoying a hearty laugh. The proceeds amounted to $25, aside from expenses. The entertainment will be repeated at Union Hall, Friday eve, Jan. 7th. It is said that a part of the proceeds will be used to purchase a new curtain for the stage, which is greatly needed.

We understand that the Chester stage route has changed hands, the new proprietor taking possession to-day, Jan. 3d.

George Parker, of Putney, formerly of this place, was in town a few days since, buying ashes.

We were the happy recipient of several lovely Christmas gifts and cards,—many thanks to our friends, both distant and near, who so kindly remembered us.

Cousin NELL.

It is said that work is plenty at F. W. Williams' machine shop this season.

This section is getting a variety of good things in the way of weather just now, Saturday, Jan. 1, came a heavy rain fall, on Sunday the hardest blow of the season, in fact it was a real Western blizzard, and to-day, Monday, is the coldest we have had yet, mercury registered 12° below zero this morning.

Married.—In Jamaica, Jan. 5, by Rev. D. F. Safford, F. P. Burbank of Bondville, and Ella A. Stewart of Londonderry.
